

Napa Valley Writers Presents:
John Byrne Barry
who will speak on the topic

“How to Navigate the World of Self-Publishing and Promotion ”

Speaking at the September Napa Valley Writers meeting will be John Byrne Barry, author of Bones in the Wash: Politics is Tough. Family is Tougher, which won the Bay Area Independent Publishers Association (BAIPA) Best Book 2015 Award.

He also has written Wasted, a “green noir mystery set in the Berkeley recycling world.”

In addition to addressing how BAIPA helps authors navigate the world of self-publishing and promotion, Barry’s presentation will focus on editing and rewriting, and his personal twelve-step editing process.

When: September 14th, 2016 from 7-9 p.m.

Where: Napa Valley Unitarian Universalists Church
1625 Salvador Avenue, Napa

Member Reader: Lenore Hirsch will be reading her short story, “Joy Ride,” which was selected by Lucky Penny Productions for their “Lucky Shorts” Program in June 2016.

Public Welcome: Members $5, Guests $8, Students with ID, free.
