

NAPA VALLEY WRITERS

A Branch of the California Writers Club

PRESENTS

IRIS DUNKLE, POET LAUREATE OF SONOMA COUNTY WHO WILL SPEAK ABOUT:

Good Literary Citizenship: What it is. Why it Works.

Ms. Dunkle will discuss how strong connections are forged when writers promote each other through reviews, interviews, and event invitations. Other sources for developing writer support include: Writing programs, literary magazine, writers' conferences, and reading series.

Dunkle is a working poet, teacher, and conference organizer. She was Assistant Poetry Director of the 2016 Napa Valley Writers' Conference. Her debut poetry collection, Gold Passage, was selected by Ross Gay for the 2012 Trio Award and was published by Trio House Press in 2013. Her second poetry collection, There's a Ghost in this Machine of Air, was published in 2015 by Word Tech Editions.

WHEN: Wednesday, August 10th from 7-9 p.m.

WHERE: Napa Valley Unitarian Universalists Church
1625 Salvador Avenue, Napa

Member Reader: Doug Brozell will be reading two selections of non-fiction: "Searching for God on the Internet" and "My Mother's Buried Treasure."

Public Welcome: Members $5, Guests, $8, Students with ID, free.
For more information, contact publicity@nvwgmail.com or go to NapaValleyWriters.net